

Bradford E. Lowe, Sr. was born and raised with deep roots in Beaumont, Texas. He was molded into the man He is today with the help of his parents and mentors. Standing on The Rock, Jesus Christ, Bradford is building a foundation for his family by providing a safe, secure and spirit-filled environment in which his family flourishes. Bradford adores his wife, Sonja and as a father, he is lovable, funny and full of character. As a man of integrity, his colleagues, family and friends admire him. He serves hand in hand with his wife as Asst. Executive Director of 1Embrace Inc.

He was employed in 1982 by Jefferson County Sheriff Department as a correctional officer where he served as a Corporal, Floor Training Officer, Desk Officer, Book In Officer, Property Officer and Transfer Officer.

After 6 years of experience Bradford entered the Law Enforcement Academy in 1988. Upon graduation, Bradford began his law enforcement career as a patrol deputy. During his career he held numerous leadership and training positions. He has been a Field Training Officer, Gang Task Force team member, "SWAT" team member, Narcotics Officer, and US Marshall and FBI Task Force special agent. He has thirty-one combined years of experience with Jefferson County Sheriff Department within Corrections and Law Enforcement Divisions. He is a Master Peace Officer and is currently a Major with the Jefferson County Sheriff's Department and assigned to the Fugitive Warrant Division.

The consulting career of Bradford has spanned over 13 years. Mr. Lowe has extensive experience with the criminal element that may exist before it occurs. He has been instrumental in consulting with companies and implementing several security programs to assist or be an asset to increase security and safety within communities and companies. He implemented safety education programs and drug awareness campaigns to include monthly meetings to educate communities. From November 2012, to date, he is the co-founder and Vice-President of Talon Protection Group, LLC, a professional security company.

Bradford has a passion for leading men and helping young teen boys. He believes showing them an alternative way to cope with the stressors of life is imperative to a good foundation. He is a mentor and as the Director of Men of Hope, a program of 1Embrace Inc. he leads men and together they help to raise up a generation of young men who will lead by example.

Bradford has stated, "I have walked out my career now it is time to walk out the calling."

And the journey continues....
