

Tamara L. Tutt is passionate about using her past and present experiences to demonstrate to women how Christ can use you right where you are. She strives to be an example of Christ's love and forgiveness through transparency of thought and action. She acknowledges her life as a living testimony of grace, and chooses to share these moments to help women overcome their past hurts.

Tamara answered a ministry calling to work with women of all ages when she aligned her heart with 1Embrace, Inc. She loves being a part of the 1Embrace Bare Leadership team in the capacity of Fundraising Coordinator, where she uses her gifts to lead women into a growing relationship with Jesus Christ. A relationship that leads to healing, deliverance and freedom.

Tamara treasures the gift of family, including her loving husband, Joseph E. Tutt, Jr., her two daughters, and three sons. Since moving to the Humble area in 2012, Tamara has served as a member of Grace Church of Humble in Guest Services, Youth and Marriage Ministries.

Tamara is known for her attitude of fun and fellowship, She believes in the good in people and seeking out the JOY of the Lord. She enjoys woodwork, crafts of all kinds, decorating, planning, fellowship, serving others, and just being in the beauty of nature.

EMBRACE
changes everything