

Janaia Pratt is a devoted member of Grace Church of Humble where she serves as the Guest Services Coordinator for the Wonder Women's ministry.

Janaia enjoys watching everyone succeed and reach his or her fullest potential. As a Training Instructor with the Department of Homeland Security, she trains and develops adults for career advancement. In this role, Janaia encounters many people from various backgrounds but finds herself most passionate about encouraging and mentoring women of all ages.

Janaia has served on the 1Embrace BARE Leadership team for over four years as the Communications Coordinator where she leads women into a growing relationship with Jesus Christ that leads to healing, deliverance and freedom.

Janaia Pratt is a loving wife of 4 years and the mother of two beautiful children.

